

Manufacturing / Packaging Operators & Line Setters

- Veterinary Pharmaceutical Manufacture
- GMP Facility
- 4 Day Week (7 – 5pm)
- Location – Rutherford NSW
- Full Time and Part Time positions available

Jurox is a 100% family owned Australian veterinary pharmaceutical company based at Rutherford in the Hunter Valley (NSW). We currently have a number of floor roles open within our manufacturing facility and we are seeking high energy, quality focused operators to compliment a dedicated team.

Within the manufacturing facility we run a number of departments committed to producing liquid, tablet, powder and cream formulations as well as specialised suites designed to manufacture aseptic and terminally sterilised injectables. These products are subsequently packed out by teams on a number of finishing lines with strict quality control measures. We operate in a safe, clean and comfortable environment. We promote ongoing education and our operators are encouraged to cross train on a variety of specialised equipment to build long term career paths within an energised and growing organisation.

To be successful, you will have:

- The ability to work in a factory/team environment with minimal supervision
- A high regard for product quality and output
- A responsible attitude and the ability to learn tasks quickly
- Demonstrated a commitment to meeting targets and deadlines
- Sound literacy and mathematical skills to follow and complete work instructions
- The ability to work in a dynamic fast paced, highly regulated environment

Desirable:

- High mechanical / hands-on proficiencies
- Working knowledge of a GMP factory environment
- Understanding of pharmaceutical process equipment
- Understanding of sterilisation equipment and aseptic techniques

We have roles suitable for various levels within the team – from cadet to experienced operators to line leaders. To be successful in your application, please address the above criteria and your experience in a cover letter with an attached resume, attention to The Production Manager: Email: hr@jurox.com.au

Jurox is Australia's leading animal health company and supports all sectors of the local animal health industry – for more information on Jurox please visit our website: www.jurox.com.au
